THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Perry High School was organized in the year of 1926 for the purpose of promoting athletics, a higher standard of scholarship, and a higher standard of citizenship. During the past years the Student Council has been successful in carrying out these ideals. The council is composed of the Presidents, and one representative from each class and organization of the High School.

THE ORCHESTRA

The orchestra was a new experiment this year, and has proved a very successful one. Early in the year it was announced that the services of Mr. Clarence H. Post and Mr. Frank Perne of the Lansing School of Music had been secured, and that half of the expense of lessons would be borne by the school. A great interest was shown and regular lessons and ensemble practice soon began. The orchestra made unusual progress, considering the great number of members who were learning to play. Much praise belongs to Mr. Post and Mr. Perne, who by their friendly guidance, made this organization a success. During the year the orchestra appeared at Parent-Teacher Meetings, The May Festival, and a recital sponsored by the Lansing School of Music.

THE MAY FESTIVAL

Another new feature of the year was the May Festival presented May 15 and 16 by the musical organizations of the school. Wednesday evening, May 15, the Festival opened with the production of the one-act musical comedy "Cynthia's Strategy", with music by John Wilson Dodge and lyric by May Hewes Dodge, by selected members of the High School Chorus.

The characters were:

Cynthia May Perry (the girl) Frances Burns
Smith Stanley Young (the boy) Lorne Ferry
Adelaide Susan Perry (Cynthia's mother) Elizabeth Loomis
Eugene Stephen Perry (Cynthia's father) Caroll Roosa

The four main characters were assisted by a chorus of eight members. After the operetta the following concert was given by the High School Orchestra, under the direction of Messrs. Post and Perne:

"Elementary March" - - - - - - - - - - Ascher
Orchestra

"Soft, soft Music is Stealing" (waltz) - - - - - - Ascher
Orchestra

Violin Solo—"Holiday Waltz" - - - - - - - - - Yost

Elsie Main and Lorne Ferry

Violin Duet—"Valse Barcarolle" - - - - - - Offenvach
Helen Turner and Helen Ruess

"Activity March" - - - - - - - - - - - Bennett
Orchestra

At the Matinee program, Thursday afternoon, May 16, the Kindergarten, First and Second grades under the direction of their teachers, Miss M. Boardman, Miss G. Baker, and Miss B. Smith respectively, and Mrs. C. B. Coulter presented the cantata "Sleepy Town" by May Andrus. The Kindergarten Band gave a concert during the Matinee program.

For the first part of the closing program, Thursday evening, the High School Chorus presented the American Indian cantata, "The Mound Builders", by Paul Bliss, under the skillful baton of Mrs. C. B. Coulter. The Orchestra completed the Perry Consolidated Schools first May Festival with the following program:

"The First Regiment March" - - - - - - - - - Ascher
Orchestra

THE HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

A chorus of sixty-five voices was conducted by Mrs. C. B. Coulter this year. Besides the American Indian Cantata "The Mound Builders", by Paul Bliss, given at the May Festival, the Chorus gave a short concert at the Baccalaureate Service. This was the largest chorus ever organized in Perry High School.

NEGATIVE DEBATING TEAM

William Ware - - - - - - - - - - - First Speaker
Arthur Bray - - - - - - - - - - - Second Speaker
Waivah Brace - - - - - - - - - - - - - Third Speaker

The Perry School is very proud of the Debating Teams and the work that they have accomplished this year; it being the first time Perry has been able to have a debating team during the past four years.

The question for this year's debating was "Resolved that a Federal Subsidy for the Development of an American Merchant Marine would be a wise National Policy."

The first negative debate was held at Gaines on November 16, 1928. Although Gaines put up a hard fight Perry won by a decision of 2 to 1.

The last negative debate was held in our own High School Assembly December 7, 1928, with New Lothrop as the opponents. Again Perry won, the decision being 3-0 in their favor.

These two debates ended the successful work of the negative team and Coach Swarthout immediately turned her attention to the interests of the affirmative team. The team realizes more than anyone else the service, endurance and patience with which Miss Swarthout coached. Too much credit cannot be given her whose untiring efforts were responsible for whatever amount of success was attained .

AFFIRMATIVE DEBATING TEAM

Jean Leggett - - - - - - - - - - - First Speaker
Herbert Estes - - - - - - - - - - - Second Speaker
Majel Euler - - - - - - - - - - - Third Speaker

On January 11, 1929 the Affirmative team made their first appearance at Potterville, although a very stormy night a good audience greeted them as they took their places. The debates were very close and the constructive speeches and the rebuttals were even. Potterville won, however, by a 2 to 1 decision.

The team was not discouraged for the debate brought much to their credit, and it indulged with more vigor than ever in the tactics of debating. The last debate of the season was held January 25, 1929 in the Perry High School Assembly with Holly as their opponents. Again the affirmative lost the decision being 3-0 in Holly's favor.

These two debates ended the debating season for Perry as they were unable to enter further eliminations for state championship.

The following Monday morning Waviah Brace in behalf of the Debating Teams presented Miss Swarthout with a small token of remembrance in appreciation of her ever ready help and thoughtfulness during their recent debating season.

SOCIETY

FRESHMAN INITIATION PARTY

On the last Friday in September the freshmen were initiated by the sophomores at the Woodman Hall. The sophs treated the poor little freshies roughly by feeding them the "cats' eyeballs", soap, salted and peppered milk and chocolate suckers. Refreshments were served by the sophomores. Miss Mitchell and Mr. Gardener chaperoned.

FRESHMAN RETURN PARTY

The Freshmen gave the Sophomores a Return Party at the Woodman Hall, October 26. The hall was decorated in orange and black keeping in touch with the Hallowe'en spirit. At the conclusion of the evening a buffet luncheon was served. Mrs. Coulter and Miss Mitchell were chaperons.

GIRL RESERVE—HI. Y. PARTY

The first of the holiday parties was given at the school building December 19. Games and stunts were enjoyed by everyone. A novel feature of the party was the drawing of presents from a "Christmas Pie." Popcorn balls and apples provided the refreshments. Mrs. Coulter, Miss Mitchell and Mr. Thurston chaperoned.

ALL-CLASS PARTY

The All-Class party was held November 2nd. This party was one of the most successful functions of the year. Games and stunts were enjoyed and due to the interest of the chaperons, Miss Mitchell, Mr. Thurston and Mr. and Mrs. Haskins, an unusually large number entered into the fun.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR PARTY

The Junior's and Senior's held an all-class party at Locke's Woods on October 19. Games and songs were enjoyed until the "flickering firelight" announced that it was time to roast weeiners. Approximately 50 were present. The Misses Swarthout, Smith, McDonough, and Mr. and Mrs. Haskins chaperoned.

GIRL RESERVE CEREMONIAL

Eight girls received their Girl Reserve rings at a very pretty ceremony held in the Auditorium in October. They received these rings for developing outstanding qualities and attaining certain achievements. Mrs. Coulter, advisor, awarded the rings to the following girls: Ruth Morris, Norma Boutell, Majel Euler, Elsie Main, Helen Turner, Gertrude Johnson, Frances Burns and Letha Peck.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET—SPONSORED BY THE GIRL RESERVES

On Tuesday evening, February 19th., mothers and daughters assembled in the Dunning and Rann Hardware Store. At 7:00 o'clock they marched up stairs into the Grange Hall to the strains of the "Community Grand March" played by Elizabeth Loomis and Clara Caldwell. After they had been seated to prettily decorated tables in the Girl Reserve colors, blue and white, they were served a delicious dinner by the Hi. Y. boys. Miss Blanche Smith led community singing between courses. Afterward Mrs. Coulter, Girl Reserve advisor, introduced the toastmistress, Mrs. George Winegar, Sr., who in turn cleverly introduced many speakers and musical entertainers. The Girl Reserves were given a toast by Mrs. Winegar, who responded with a song, "Follow the Gleam." This affair was one of the most important social functions of the year.

ATHLETIC BANQUET

A very successful banquet was given by the Athletic Association at the Woodman Hall, Friday evening, March 15th. Norma Boutell in a very clever manner acted as toastmistress and introduced a long and varied program. The principal speaker of the evening was Coach Benjamin Van Alystine of the Michigan State College. The boys and girls basketball letters were awarded by their coaches.

If your roasted rather badly
Just remember that you gladly
Read the jokes
On other folks.

Mr. Thurston: "Clarence do you ever work?"
Clarence: "Yep, I like to work."
Mr. Thurston: "Well what on earth do you like to work at?"
Clarence: "At intervals."

Arthur Van Haun: "Will you go to the party to night with me?"
Elizabeth: "No fooling?"
Arthur: "Thats up to you."

"Do you think they approved of my talk?" asked a new minister after chapel. "I think so," replied Mr. Thurston, "They were all nodding.

Norma Boutell: (To an innocent Freshie) Letha nearly drowned last night.
Freshie: "How?"
Norma: "The bed spread, the pillow slipped and she fell into the springs."

Traffic officer: "Didn't you see me wave my hand?"
Thelma Spalding: "Yes. But we never met before.

Mrs. Harrington was starting her son, Jack in school at Perry. On the first day Mrs. Harrington said to Miss Smith as she was about to leave the room, "Now Miss Smith, Jack is very delicate and if he does anything wrong just punish the child next to him which will nearly break his heart."

Mrs. Haskins was telling some ladies about the burglar scare in her house the night before.
"Yes," she said, "I heard a noise and got up, and there from under the bed I saw a man's leg sticking out".
"Mercy," exclaimed a woman, "the burgler's leg?"
"No, my dear, my husband's leg—he had heard the noise to."

Lorne: Mrs. Coulter, may I be excused this afternoon?
Mrs. Coulter: "Whats the trouble?"
Lorne: I have dropsy and heart failure, I drop down then haven't the heart to get up.

Ellsworth: "Can't you see my hearts on fire?"
Ellanor: "Well, do I look like a fire extniguisher?"

Mrs. Towsley: "Dale, wake me when you go. I want to get up early in the morning."

I asked my Pa a simple thing
"Where holes in doughnuts go?"
Pa read his paper, then he said,
"You're too young to know."
I asked my Ma about the wind
"Why can't you see it blow?"
Ma thought a moment, then she said,
"You're too young to know."
Now why on earth do you suppose
They went and licked me so?
Ma asked: "Where is the jam?" I said,
"You're too young to know."

Haskins: "What do you turn your cows in the orchard for?"
Young Boy: "We wanted some apple butter."

Frances: "Did you mail my letter this morning?"
Letha: "Yes."
Frances: "But you still have the two pennies I gave you."
Letha: "Didn't have to use 'em. I slipped it into the box when nobody was lookin'."

Dale who had prolonged his evening call at the Towsley's house one night was surprised as he left to hear an upper window raise and a voice call out, "Leave an extra quart this morning, please."

Mrs. Coulter: "Why didn't you answer me?"
Elmer Colby: "I did, didn't you see me shake my head?"
Mrs. Coulter: "And do you suppose I could hear it rattle way up here?

Miss Swarthout: "Caroll, how far were you from the right answer?"
Caroll: "Just two seats."

"Well what?" exclaimed Wells. My legs just went out from under me and I hit plump on—
"Wells," screamed Norma. "Leave this room instantly."
"But he's hurt" exclaimed Wells.
Hurt?" asked Norma "Who's hurt."
"Why, brother, I came down on him. Only you wouldn't let me tell it."
